The purpose of our aim has met the approval of the particular men of St. Louis, and our purpose moves on to great er merits.

We have the exclusive control for St. Louis of the finest made garments this country has ever produced; not contented with this clothes greatness, we attain to give garments yet further removed from ready-made characteristics, and to stand by equal qualifications on a level with finest custom garments, such as made by the few artist tailors in Eastern Cities.

We have what we have, and we claim no more.

BISHOP FAVIER IS DEAD. Apostolic Vicar in China Served Forty-Three Years.

Pekin, April 4-(Coyright, 1986.)-Bishop Payler, Catholic Apostolic Vicar and head of the Lazarist Mission, died this morning at the age of 66 years.

Bishop Alphonse Favier, Catholic Vicar Apostolic in China, has for many years been one of the most notable personalities in the far East. He had lived for fertythree years in China and was one of the few Europeans who had thoroughly assimilated themselves with the Chinese character. None had a better understanding of the national traits.

He succeeded Bishop Gorthon in 1800 in He succeeded Hishop Gorfion in 1889 in the charge of the Catholic mission in the Province of Pe Chi Li, in which there were about 35:00 Catholics, but had previ-ously, as head of the Lagarist mission, carried the early traditions of the Cath-olic propaganda throughout China, his name being well known throughout the East from Laijon to Yokohama.
